NORTH STARS' OUTLOOK 1975-76

What a difference a year makes. Change has been the rule rather than the exception for the North Stars during the past 12 months. The cast that takes to the ice this training camp stands in sharp contrast to last year's squad.

There has been change at the top. There has been change at every position. Compared to the team that started last season, the North Stars are very nearly an entirely new club.

There is new leadership. Ted Harris, former North Stars captain and fresh from playing on his fifth Stanley Cup championship team, has taken the reins as head coach of the Minnesota team. Harris brings total respect and his taste for a combative style of play to the Minnesotans. He'll be helped by Andre Beaulieu, first assistant coach in the North Stars' history. Beaulieu displays an impressive record as coach in Minnesota high school junior circles.

The trades that made last January the busiest month ever for the North Stars brought six newcomers to the club. They are left winger Norm Gratton, right winger Dean Talafous, right winger Craig Cameron, center Doug Rombough, defenseman Dwight Bialowas and left winger Ernie Hicke. All six made important contributions during the half season they played at Minnesota and are expected to perform even more capably given a full season in North Stars' sweaters.

On the youth side of the coin the North Stars will profit from the experience gained by a number of first-year men last season — players such as goalie Pete LoPresti, left winger John Flesch, defenseman Doug Hicks, right winger Don Martineau, center Blake Dunlop and right winger Richard Nantais.

Then there are such long-time stalwarts as goalie Cesare Maniago, right winger Bill Goldsworthy, center Dennis Hextall, defensemen Fred Barrett, Dennis O'Brien, Tom Reid and jack-of-all-trades Lou Nanne.

Add it all up and a high finish in the Smythe Division looms for the North Stars.

WALTER BUSH, JR.
President and Governor

When you look at Walter Bush, Jr., you see that the man and his experience fit the role he plays as chief executive officer of the North Stars and Met Center. Bush's life seems tailored for one position, president of a National Hockey League team. The ideal president of an NHL club should have played the game, should have experience as an executive at all levels of the sport, should have a legal background and should be familiar with the inner workings of the league. When you add up the requirements, it's easy to see why Bush has led the North Stars since he provided the impetus for their birth. The 46-year-old native of Minneapolis also is vice-chairman of the NHL Board of Governors, a member of the Owner-Player Council, vice-president of the governing committees of the NHL Hockey Halls of Fame, a first for a U.S. citizen, director of U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and chairman of its selection committee, serves on the NHL Pension and International committees, is a director of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States and is secretary of the U.S. Olympic Hockey Committee. A winner of the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1973 and named NHL Executive of the Year in 1972, Bush started his life-long love affair with hockey as a youngster and played the sport at Breck School, Dartmouth College and at the semi-pro level. He was graduated from Dartmouth and the University of Minnesota Law School and interupted a legal career to bring the NHL to this state. He and his wife, Mary, live in Edina. They are the parents of a daughter and two sons.

JACK GORDON
General Manager

Jack Gordon has been the most successful coach in the history of the Minnesota North Stars, but for the first time since the 47-year-old executive joined the team in 1970, he will not pace behind the bench. Gordon's sole role is that of general manager, the position of total command in the hockey area. "I enjoyed coaching very much," says Gordon, "but there is no question that the job of general manager of a hockey club in this day and age demands all of your time." Those people in the world of hockey who know Gordon know that he will do just that — give all his time to make his team a success. That's been his pattern of life as a player, as a coach and as an executive. He came out of Winnipeg as a youngster and went on to a career that saw him serve 11 years at Cleveland as a player, player-coach, coach and general manager of the AHL team. He also worked four seasons as assistant general manager of the Rangers. During his years behind the bench at Minnesota he coached the club into the Stanley Cup playoffs in each of the seasons he handled the club for the full year. Now that he is off the bench and behind the general manager's desk, he is determined to bring about the same results. Gordon and his wife make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a son and a daughter.

TED HARRIS
Coach

During the span of one week last June, Ted Harris changed roles. One day he had the Stanley Cup in his embrace. A few days later he accepted a new challenge as coach of the North Stars. Harris ended his playing career in style — as a member of the 1975 Stanley Cup champion Philadelphia team — and started his coaching career with equal style — with a vow to make the North Stars competitors in the Smythe Division. If the 15-year professional career of the 39-year-old Harris is any guide, he'll do just that. The hard-hitting defenseman played on five Stanley Cup championship teams, four at Montreal, and was a leader wherever he performed. Nowhere did that quality stand out more sharply than in his three-plus seasons at Minnesota. It is no coincidence that while Harris was captain of the North Stars, Minnesota enjoyed its best seasons. The North Stars made the playoffs each year that he wore the Big C that signifies the captaincy. Harris is a native of Winnipeg, who started his professional career in 1958 at Springfield of the American League. Over the next 15 years he served with distinction at Montreal, Minnesota, Detroit, St. Louis and finally, Philadelphia. Ted and his wife, Maureen, make their home on a farm in Lakeville. They are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

CHARLIE BURNS
Assistant General Manager

Charlie Burns has been the North Stars' man for all seasons ever since he joined the team in 1969. As a player, as a coach, as an executive at the major and minor-league levels, he has served the organization and in every capacity he has displayed that overused word, class. The 39-year-old Burns has served two terms as coach of the North Stars, has been general manager and coach of their New Haven American League affiliate and now assists Jack Gordon in all phases of the hockey operation. Burns played professional hockey for 15 seasons, performing for Detroit, Boston, California and Pittsburgh before he became one of the most popular players ever to wear a Minnesota sweater. Burns makes his home, appropriately, in Burnsville.

ANDRE
BEAULIEU (BOWL-you)
Assistant Coach

One of Minnesota's most-respected coaches at the high school and junior level joins the North Stars this season in the person of Andre Beaulieu. Beaulieu, 33, coached Hill-Murray High School to a six-year record of 121-35-2 and the Junior Stars to a two-year record of 92-36-6 before signing on as Ted Harris' assistant, the first such position in the North Stars' history. The native of Shawinigan, Que., played Junior A hockey in his home town and Senior A hockey at Muskegon, Mich., before he entered St. Mary's College at Winona, Minn. Beaulieu set a national collegiate scoring record of 234 points at St. Mary's where he received his bachelor's degree in mathematics. He later completed requirements for his master's degree at St. Thomas College. Beaulieu and his wife, Cae, make their home in Woodbury. They are the parents of a girl and a boy.

FRED BARRETT

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 188 lbs.
Age: 25 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

There was no disagreement at the end of last season when the writers and broadcasters who cover the North Stars regularly voted Fred Barrett the Tom Dill Memorial Cup. The cup is awarded annually to the North Stars' most proficient defenseman. The vote was unanimous for the man his teammates call Swoop and reflected the kind of season enjoyed by Barrett in 1974-75. Barrett has come of age on defense. He not only has perfected his stand-up, hit them on the blue line style, but also apparently has shaken the injury bugaboo that hampered him for the first three seasons after the North Stars made him their No. 2 draft choice in 1970. Despite his rugged checking style, players in the NHL will testify that his checks leave you breathless . . . He spends relatively little time in the penalty box. Why? Because the checks are stiff, but legal . . . His three goals and 18 assists last season both were personal highs . . . Barrett played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros . . . Fred and his wife, Lois, became the parents of their first child, a son, during the 1974-75 season.

DWIGHT BIALOWAS (BYE-low-us)

Height: 5-11; Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 23 (Sept. 8, 1952)
Born: Regina, Sask.
Home: Regina, Sask.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

You remember the old Charles Atlas ads in the comic books, the ones where the course turns a 98-pound weakling into a replica of Godzilla. Well, Dwight Bialowas didn't weigh 98 pounds. And he isn't built like Godzilla or even like Carl Eller. But Bialowas and the North Stars did profit by a weight course taken by the youngster two summers ago. The course, offered by the trainer of the Regina football team, put a good 15 pounds, all muscle, on Bialowas' frame. It turned a relatively slim young man into a husky NHL defenseman. The additional size was far from the only reason Minnesota traded with Atlanta for Bialowas halfway through last season. The youngster, the Flames' No. 2 choice in the 1972 Amateur Draft, possesses the skills one needs to play the role of NHL defenseman. He's only played one full season in the National League, so there's no question in the mind of Minnesota's staff that a bright future in the league is ahead for the studious-looking lad . . . Wears contact lenses during a game, glasses when he's off the ice . . . Attended the University of Saskatchewan where he studied business administration . . . Bialowas is single.

CRAIG CAMERON

Height: 6-0; Weight: 208 lbs.
Age: 30 (July 19, 1945)
Born: Edmonton, Alta.
Home: Edmonton, Alta.
Left Handed, Shoots Right

The Gunner is back and the whole Minnesota organization is pleased by the news. Cameron was taken from the North Stars by the Islanders in the 1972 Expansion Draft. He returned to the Land of 10,000 Lakes last January as part of a multi-player deal between the North Stars and the Islanders. The rationale behind acquiring Cameron was to beef up the North Stars' checking game. During Cameron's first tour of duty at Minnesota, he was the team's most reliable defensive player. Same bit with the Islanders. When an opposing player has a hot hand, Cameron draws the checking assignment. An example: Detroit's Danny Grant came to the Met with a goalscoring streak. Cameron checked him. The result? One shot and no goals for Grant. Cameron plays this role game in and game out season after season. There's little glamour connected with it, but it's a very necessary part of hockey . . . While Cameron is not a prolific scorer, he's an accurate shot. Witness his 15.6 per cent scoring percentage, second best among the North Stars . . . Has played in two Stanley Cup final series . . . Cameron is not married.

DAVE CRESSMAN

Height: 6-1; Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 25 (Jan 2, 1950)
born: Kitchener, Ont.
Home: Kitchener, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Dave Cressman was the surprise package in the Minnesota organization last season. Chosen fourth by the North Stars in the 1970 Amateur Draft. Cressman had kicked around in senior amateur hockey for four seasons. Based on Cressman's fine season in Saginaw in 1973-74, he got a shot with the North Stars' New Haven farm team. He did such a superior job, especially in the defensive department of play, that the North Stars called him up for five games. It was during that span that Cressman recorded his greatest thrill in hockey. It came when he scored a goal for the North Stars in his very first shift of his very first NHL game. Although Cressman returned to New Haven, he continued his fine playing, scoring 21 points in 16 playoff games, including 14 assists, more than any other AHL playoff performer. One of his best assets is a long reach that allows him to steal the puck from opponents on many occasions . . . Played junior hockey in his home town of Kitchener . . . Also plays left wing.

BLAKE DUNLOP

Height: 5-11 – Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 22 (April 18, 1953)
Born: Hamilton, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.

Blake Dunlop is on the threshold of becoming one of the National Hockey League's finest young centers. The youngster, only two years out of junior ranks, showed Minnesota's management that he had the tools last season. Had not he been sidelined for the last third of last season by a severe hamstring pull, Dunlop certainly would have ranked among the North Stars' top three scorers. Of course, scoring is nothing new to Dunlop. During his final junior year at Ottawa, he scored 159 points to lead every junior player in North America. In his first professional year he scored 78 points in only 59 games at New Haven. Intelligence and the ability to get the puck to his wingers are Dunlop's stock in trade. Before he went on the injury list last season, wingers Norm Gratton and Dean Talafous both prospered from the deft passes of Dunlop ... Minnesota's first choice in the 1973 Amateur Draft ... As a youngster he was one of Canada's best junior tennis players and still can hit a mean forehand or backhand ... Teammate of the Islanders' Denis Potvin at Ottawa where he was coached by ex-North Star Leo Boivin ... Dunlop is single.

JOHN FLESCH (Flesh)

Height: 6-2 – Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 22 (July 15, 1953)
Born: Sudbury, Ont.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.

When John Flesch is on the ice, no one, even Flesch, is certain exactly what's going to happen. Bodies may fly in all directions. Flesch may dance The Bump after scoring a goal. He might hammer his own head with a stick if he makes a mistake. But the unpredictability of this rawboned young man not only keeps his opponents loose, but also makes him a great favorite with the crowds at Met Center. Fleshie, as he's called by his teammates, came to the North Stars before last season in a trade with Atlanta. There's no question that the talent is there. Time and experience in the NHL are what is needed. That's what Flesch got last year and what the Minnesota management intends to give him this year . . . Wears his hair curly or in a Marine-style crewcut, depending on how the mood strikes him . . . Played college hockey at Lake Superior State where he studied history and physical education . . . Flesch's junior hockey days were spent in his home town of Sudbury where he was coached by former North Star Barry McKenzie . . . Missed about one third of last season with a knee injury . . . Flesch and his wife, Patricia, make their home in Minnesota during the off-season. They are the parents of a boy, 6.

BILL (GOLDY) GOLDSWORTHY

Height: 6-1 – Weight: 194 lbs.
Age: 31 (Aug. 24, 1944)
Born: Kitchener, Ont.
Home: Minnetonka, Minn.

Who has scored more goals and points than any other North Star? Bill Goldsworthy. Who has played more games than any other North Star? Bill Goldsworthy. Who has been the mainstay of the North Stars ever since October 21, 1967 when he scored the first goal in the history of Met Center? Bill Goldsworthy. Goldy is starting his ninth season in a Minnesota sweater. Only one player, Cesare Maniago, has been on the scene as long as Goldsworthy. The large right winger has matured into one of the NHL's premier players over that span of time. During five of the last six seasons he has scored 30 or more goals. Over those same six seasons he has averaged 34.5 goals a year. At age 31 the North Stars' captain is in the prime of his NHL life and his powerful skating stride and booming shot will torment opponents this season and in years to come . . . Led the North Stars in first goals, tieing goals, leading goals and insurance goals last season and tied for the lead in game winners . . . Took 273 shots, most of any North Star, last year . . . Chosen for the NHL All-Star game, but was injured and missed it . . . Bill and his wife, June, are the parents of two children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 4.

NORM GRATTON (Grah-TAWN)

Height: 5-11; Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 24 (Dec. 22, 1950)
Born: LaSalle, Que.
Home: Williamsville, N.Y.

Of all the trades made by the North Stars last season, the one that paid the most immediate dividends was the deal that brought left winger Norm Gratton to the North Stars from the Sabres. The slim sharpshooter scored 14 goals in 34 games. Translate that into a full season and Gratton may flirt with 40 goals a season. Why did Gratton score at Minnesota after not scoring at Buffalo. Ice time is the reason. "I know that if Norm takes a regular shift he'll score his share of goals," says Buffalo Coach Floyd Smith. "We weren't able to get him the ice time. He's getting it at Minnesota and he's scoring and I'm happy for him ." After arriving at Minnesota Gratton played most of the time on a line with center Blake Dunlop and right winger Dean Talafous. Accuracy is his stock in trade and the statistics prove it. Gratton was the North Stars' most accurate shooter with 14 goals on 88 shots and a percentage of 15.9 . . . The brother of St. Louis goaltender Gilles Gratton . . . Played junior hockey for the Montreal Junior Canadiens . . . Also can play right wing . . . A first-round choice of the New York Rangers in the Amateur Draft of 1970 . . . Norm and his wife, Robin, are the parents of a daughter, 1.

DENNIS HEXTALL

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 176 lbs.
Age: 32 (April 17, 1943)
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Home: Edina, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Each year WCCO-Radio awards a trophy to the leading Minnesota scorer and each year Dennis Hextall skates out to accept the prize. The combative centerman has played three full seasons with the North Stars and has led the club in scoring each year. Moreover, in two of those three seasons he has led the team in penalty minutes. Those raw figures say all there is to say about Hextall's style of play. He's tough and he's talented. He's not bashful going into the corners and when he gets there, he knows where to put the puck. Where he puts it is on a teammate's stick as shown by the 171 assists he has recorded in the last three seasons . . . Represented the North Stars in the 1975 NHL All-Star game . . . His father, Bryan, Sr., is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame. His brother Bryan, Jr., plays for Detroit . . . Was dealt to Minnesota by California in 1971 . . . ## ERNIE HICKE (HICK-ee)

Height: 5-11; Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 27 (Nov. 7, 1947)
Born: Regina, Sask.
Home: Regina, Sask.

Ernie Hicke played half a season for the North Stars last year after being acquired from the Islanders. During that half season the swift, tough left winger scored 15 goals. Stretch those figures over a full season and Hicke ranks as a potential 30-or-better goal scorer for Minnesota this year. What's more, he logged 51 minutes in the penalty box in his half season at Minnesota, which means he's one of the tougher forwards on the ice for the North Stars. Hicke is fast and is gifted with a big shot. That shot is one reason he often plays the left point on the power play for Minnesota. The North Stars thought so much of his skills when they obtained him that Hicke was moved right onto the team's big line with center Dennis Hextall and right winger Bill Goldsworthy ... The brother of former NHL player Bill Hicke ... Set a Western League record of goals in nine straight games at Salt Lake in 1969-70 ... Was hampered by injury and illness in each of the last three seasons. The ailments included torn knee ligaments and a severe viral infection ... Operates a hockey school in the off-season... Ernie and his wife, Barbara, have one daughter, 3.

DOUG HICKS

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 20 (May 29, 1955)
Born: Cold Lake, Alta.
Home: Red Deer, Alta.

When Doug Hicks skates, the blades of the Minnesota defenseman hardly seem to strike the ice. That's one key to the success of the youngest player ever to perform for the North Stars. "When you have a stride and rhythm to your skating like Doug, it's like shooting dice that always come up seven," says Coach Ted Harris. Minnesota made Hicks No. 1 choice in the 1974 Amateur Draft, taking him as an exceptional player at age 19. The wisdom of that selection was borne out during the 1974-75 season. Had Hicks played with a high-finishing team, it's a certain bet that plenty of Calder Trophy votes would have been cast for him. As it was, he tied teammate Dennis O'Brien for the best goalscoring record among Minnesota defensemen and was one of only three North Stars players to perform in all 80 games . . . Played junior hockey at Flin Flon, Man. . . . Even at age 20 Hicks will be one of the youngest, if not the youngest, players in Minnesota's lineup this season . . . He is not married.

PETE LOPRESTI (low-PRESS-tee)

Height: 6-1 – Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 21 (May 23, 1954)
Born: Virginia, Minn.
Home: Eveleth, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Pete LoPresti arrived on the Minnesota scene a year ahead of schedule. But the timing turned out to be fortunate, both for the North Stars and for LoPresti. The young goalie from Eveleth, Minn., and Denver University was taken by the North Stars in the third round of the 1974 Amateur Draft and was expected to spend the season gaining experience at New Haven. But fate intervened in the guise of injuries and suddenly LoPresti was gaining his experience against the big shooters from the NHL. The learning process wasn't easy but LoPresti improved by leaps and bounds during the season and showed the potential to move, as he matures, into the front rank of NHL goaltenders. He's big. He's strong. He has the moves. Perhaps most important of all, he has a splendid, easy-going temperament . . . Earned his first NHL shutout against Stanley Cup champion Philadelphia . . . His father, Sam, set the NHL record of 80 saves in a 3-2 Chicago loss to Boston on March 4, 1941 . . . Played high school hockey in Eveleth and attended Denver for two seasons. Plans to obtain his degree by study during the off-seasons . . . Pete's wife is named Terese.

CESARE (SEE-zar) MANIAGO (mahn-ee-AH-go)

Height: 6-3 – Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 36 (Jan. 13, 1939)
Born: Trail, B.C.
Home: Burnaby, B.C.

For one fourth of his life Cesare Maniago has been No. 1 goalkeeper for the North Stars. Considering the demands of the position, that's an enviable record. The tall man from Trail, B.C. flirted with the idea of retirement after last season, a year in while the slow healing of a knee operation left him sub-par physically. But off-season therapy worked wonders on the knee and Maniago is in fine fettle for his ninth season as a North Star, his 15th as a professional. Once again last season Maniago played more games than any other Minnesota goalie, a performance he has turned in every season since the North Stars made him their very first choice in the 1967 Expansion Draft. Lean and limber, Maniago doesn't play the orthodox style of goal, but his long arms and legs and his quick reflexes make him one of the NHL's best at his job . . . Maniago and Bill Goldsworthy are the last of the original North Stars taken in the 1967 draft . . . At the age of 36 he is the senior citizen among the North Stars . . . Holds the team record of three straight shutouts . . . Cesare and his wife, Mavis, are the parents of three girls, 10, 8 and 5.

DON MARTINEAU (Martin-OH)

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 23 (April 25, 1952)
Born: Kimberly, B.C.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

If you want some one to play the checking game, choose Don Martineau. The sturdy right winger gets the job done. Ask Buffalo's Richard Martin. Martineau was assigned as Martin's shadow for one game and held the Sabres' 50-goaler to two shots and no goals. Or ask Boston's Gary Doak. A check by Martineau, one of the stiffest ever seen at the Met, left Doak with such a headache that the Bruins had to upgrade his ticket from tourist to first class so that he could rest more comfortably on the return trip. It was this style of play General Manager Jack Gordon was seeking when he obtained Martineau in a trade with Atlanta two summers ago. Minnesota management realizes that Martineau needs more offensive polish, but is sure that this will emerge with time and experience. Meanwhile, his checking skills will continue to frustrate North Stars' foes ... Played junior hockey for New Westminster and was Atlanta's fourth-round choice in the 1972 Amateur Draft ... Enjoys camping, hunting and fishing during the off-season ... Martineau is married. His wife's name is Susan.

LOU NANNE (Nanny)

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 186 lbs.
Age: 34 (June 2, 1941)
Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
Home: Edina, Minn.

Lou Nanne is a conglomerate on and off the ice. The veteran North Star – he's third in seniority on the team – plays either right wing or defense with equal facility, can take a shift on left wing and is one of Minnesota's more formidable point men on the power play. Off-ice Nanne is active in sales, horse-raising, both radio and television broadcasting and operates his own hockey school. In addition, he's the North Stars' player representative. It would seem that there aren't enough hours in the day or days in the week for Nanne to complete his appointed rounds. But that's not true. The former University of Minnesota All-American and U.S. Olympic captain has vast reserves of energy which enable him to perform all his varied tasks with distinction. On the ice he uses strength and desire to get the job done, playing more like a bull than like a racehorse . . . Owns a farm in western Minnesota . . . A naturalized U.S. citizen . . . Is the only defenseman ever to win the WCHA scoring title . . . Played youth hockey with the Esposito brothers . . . Lou and his wife, Francine, are the parents of a girl, 12, twin boys, 11, and a boy, 8.

DENNIS O'BRIEN

Height: 6-0 – Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 26 (June 10, 1949)
Born: Port Hope, Ont.
Home: Port Hope, Ont.
Right Handed, Shoots Left

Dennis O'Brien was well on his way to his best season as a professional last year when disaster struck in the form of torn knee ligaments. O'Brien missed 24 games and never regained the peak that had made him Minnesota's best defenseman for the first two months of the season. But the knee is sound once more and the man his teammates call Obie is in fine condition and prepared to continue his hard-rock style of play on the ice. O'Brien is tough...He led the North Stars with 166 penalty minutes two seasons ago . . . But his willingness to mix it masks a genuine talent for moving the puck from his zone and for playing a sound game in the offensive end. Even though he missed a third of last season, his six goals were a personal NHL high and tied him with teammate Doug Hicks for the goalscoring lead among Minnesota defensemen . . . The North Star's No. 2 choice in the 1969 Amateur Draft . . . Played junior hockey at St. Catherines . . . Led both the Ontario Hockey Association and the Central League in penalty minutes and once held the CHL penalty record with 331 minutes . . . Dennis and his wife, Janice, are the parents of a girl, 3.

TOM REID

Height: 6-1 – Weight: 200 lbs.
Age: 29 (June 24, 1946)
Born: Fort Erie, Ont.
Home: Fort Erie, Ont.

Can Tom Reid be the senior partner on the North Stars' blueline brigade? It seems only a short time ago when Minnesota obtained him in a trade with the Black Hawks. But it's true. Reid, in terms of age and in terms of years of employment with the North Stars, is the veteran of the Minnesota defense corps. And, like a veteran, he's the cornerstone of the defense. Defense is Reid's game. Sure, he'll score now and again. In fact, he connected on the first regular-season penalty shot ever scored by a North Star. But his forte is keeping the puck out of the net, not putting it in. He does it all defensively, taking out foes, blocking innumerable shots, checking the puck away from opposing forwards, the whole gamut of defensive skills. "Tommy is important to our defense," says Coach Ted Harris, no mean defender himself in his playing days, "more important than most people realize at a casual look." . . . Operates a sporting goods store in his home town of Fort Erie, Ont., during the off-season . . . The source of many practical jokes played during the season . . . Reid is married. His wife's name is Susan.

DOUG ROMBOUGH (RAHM-Bow)

Height: 6-3; Weight: 210 lbs.
Age: 25 (July 8, 1950)
Born: Fergus, Ont.
Home: Fort Erie, Ont.

Doug Rombough, obtained by the North Stars from the Islanders halfway through last season, has the size and talent to become an excellent National Hockey League center. The 1970 No. 8 choice of Buffalo in the Amateur Draft has shown on many occasions that he has the tools. Want an example? How about the 1973 American Hockey League playoffs when Rombough led all goalscorers with 10 tallies. The aim of Minnesota's coaching staff is to inspire this type of performance from Rombough on a consistent basis. When they do, the North Stars will have a winner at center. Rombough not only has the offensive weapons, but also can do a fine job on defense. He drew the assignment of checking Phil Esposito the last time Minnesota played Boston last season and his combination of size and diligence held the Boston superstar to four shots and no goals . . . His brother, Lorne, played for Hampton in the Southern League last season . . . Broke into the NHL with Buffalo, but was traded to the Islanders . . . Doug and his wife Helen became the parents of twin daughters shortly before the start of last season.

GLEN SATHER

Height: 5-11; Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 32 (Sept. 2, 1943)
Born: High River, Alta.
Home: Banff, Alta.

Contact is Glen Sather's game and that's what the North Stars acquired this past summer when they purchased the hard-bitten left winger from the Candiens. Opponents know enough to keep their heads up when Sather's on the ice. Although he's not the largest North Star, he hits as if he was. Defensive play and penalty killing are two more of Sather's strong suits. He sticks with his check with the persistence of a Minnesota mosquito. There are few, if any, better penalty killers in the National League than Sather. All in all, the North Stars bought a high-quality package when they laid out the cash for Sather ... Operates a hockey school during the off-season ... His favorite relaxation is fishing ... His nickname is Slats ... Played junior hockey in Edmonton ... Has gone over the 100 mark in penalties twice during his NHL career ... Sather was the property of four NHL teams before joining the North Stars. He broke in with Boston and has played with Pittsburgh, the Rangers, St. Louis and Montreal ... Glen and his wife, Ann, have two daughters.

DEAN TALAFOUS (TAL-a-fuss)

Height: 6-4; Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 22 (Aug. 25, 1953)
Born: Duluth, Minn.
Home: Hastings, Minn.

Look back seven or so seasons and you may recall a dead ringer for Dean Talafous. The look-alike, in size and in potential, was the then-young Pete Mahovlich. They're both tall. They're both slender. Mahovlich had a world of untapped talent when he was Talafous' age. Talafous has the same potential now. Mahovlich went on to become one of the NHL's genuine stars. Talafous has every right to believe he will do the same. Minnesota obtained the former Hastings High School and University of Wisconsin star last year in mid-season. During that half season Talafous showed that he's nifty with the puck, strong in the corners and accurate around the net. All he needs is NHL experience and perhaps a few more pounds on his frame and he stands a chance of becoming the best Minnesotan to perform in the NHL... Atlanta's fourth pick in the 1973 Amateur Draft and the first American taken that year ... Played in the state tournament for Hastings ... Scored the game-winning goal that gave Wisconsin the NCAA championship in 1973 ... Used at right wing last season, he also is an adept center ... Talafous is married. His wife's name is Kay.

TIM YOUNG

Height: 6'2" – Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 20 (Feb. 22, 1955)
Born: Scarborough, Ont.
Home: Toronto, Ont.

The deal that brought Tim Young, the talented playmaker from Ottawa, to the North Stars could not have been more timely for Minnesota and for Young. The North Stars needed a center of Young's size and skill. Young, chosen in the first round of the 1975 Amateur Draft by Los Angeles, couldn't come to agreement with the Kings. Minnesota General Manager Jack Gordon approached the Kings and, quick as a wink, Young was a North Star in exchange for a 1976 draft choice. In the tall centerman Minnesota gained a performer who earned more assists (107) than any other player selected in the 1975 draft, who did the same in the Ontario Hockey Association and who broke all the scoring records set at Ottawa by his new teammate, Minnesota center Blake Dunlop. That's not to say that Young knows only how to pass the puck. That's his No. 1 skill, but he also knows how to put it in the net. The 56 goals he scored last year are proof of the point . . . Played one season under the coaching eye of ex-North Star Leo Boivin . . . Was the 16th player taken in the 1975 draft . . . Played Junior B hockey for the Canadian champion Pembrooke team . . . Young is not married.

NORTH STARS' TV and RADIO TEAMS

For the ninth successive season followers of the North Stars will be able to watch and listen to the fortunes of their favorites on WCCO-Radio (830) or on WTCN-TV (Channel 11).

WTCN-TV will televise 25 of the North Stars' games, four at home and 21 away. WCCO-Radio will carry every one of the North Stars' 80 regular-season contests.

Joe Boyle is back for his third season as hockey play by play man on WTCN-TV. Boyle, also a member of WTCN-TV's baseball television team, was color commentator on hockey telecasts for two seasons before he assumed the play by play position. He'll be assisted during North Stars' games by color man Roger Buxton, back for his second full year at that post.

Al Shaver, the only person who has covered every regular-season and playoff game in the history of the North Stars, is behind the microphone once again at WCCO-Radio. This will be his ninth season of play by play reports on the North Stars. Color commentator on WCCO-Radio for the fourth successive season is popular disk jockey Steve Cannon.
